PLUS

Francesco Rota | 2017, 2024

They look for and attract each other. This combination of shapes and colours gives rise to PLUS sofas, a system of modular elements that enhance the character of all community spaces. The profile is soft and the seat is generously wide enough to accommodate the body lying down. A host of solutions can be found, thanks to an extremely simple linking system that re-arranges shapes and redefines the profile. A small but important world for gathering at home, in the office or in any space. And when you want a moment to yourself, the SCREEN panel, which can be used as a backrest, creates a very discreet area.
